

who's sharing your liability insurance coverage?

Only Associated Bodywork & Massage Professionals gives you liability coverage you can call your own. With insurance coverage offered elsewhere, you're subject to a "Master Policy Aggregate." This means all the members combined share one limit. Not with insurance provided as part of ABMP membership—your coverage is yours and yours alone.

What does that mean? Peace of mind that your insurance will be there when you need it—all of it, if necessary. Insurance from AMTA and other groups? Better hope there's some left for you in the unfortunate event your colleagues are sued.

No one offers more protection than ABMP, along with a lot more resources and support to help build your practice. And it's all part of your basic membership fee.
