

INSTRUCTORS ON THE FRONT LINES

Tools to Help You Support Your Students

Associated Bodywork & Massage Professionals invites you to attend a complimentary regional massage instructor workshop designed to support classroom management and student success on your campus. Instructors are on the front lines—dealing with student issues and often struggling with students who are not prepared or proactive, and who fail to meet their academic and skill potential. That’s why we designed this workshop to provide instructors with the assistance you need to support your students. You will receive:

Friday, November 13, 2009
9:00 a.m.–2:00 p.m.
(Lunch will be provided.)

Embassy Suites Minneapolis—
Brooklyn Center
6300 Earle Brown Drive
Brooklyn Center, Minnesota 55430
Tel: 763-560-2700

- Practical solutions to building preparedness, responsibility, initiative, interest in learning, communication skills, and academic success in your student population.
- Networking opportunities to share ideas with administrators and faculty from other massage schools in a supportive environment.
- Resources to facilitate student and school success.

This workshop is designed for instructors teaching in a massage training program. Directors of education and massage program managers are also welcome to attend. Please register for this free workshop by visiting www.abmp.com and click on the link in the “Resources for Massage Schools and Instructors” section. The registration deadline is Tuesday, November 10, 2009.
